Some of the objects used in the past at Bart’s look very strange to us today! Can you think like a detective and work out what they were used for? There might be some clues on the Discovery sheet!

Questions to think or talk about
- What is the object?
- Who might have used it?
- How did they use it?

DID YOU KNOW?
All these objects are in St Bartholomew’s Hospital Museum. The museum is housed in the historic North Wing of the hospital.
